Prepared On: January 16, 2024
Attachments: Patty Cummings Request for Reappointment on the Parks and Recreation Commission
A-3 Commission Appointments - Council Policy Manual

Background/History:

According to the City Council Policy Manual under Section A-3 Commission Appointments, Procedure for filling vacancies on the Planning Commission, and Parks and Recreation Commission, it states, "1. Except as otherwise determined by the City Council, approximately two months before the expiration of an existing term, the City shall advertise and seek applicants for the upcoming vacancy. Notice of the advertisement is to be provided to the Council Members. Incumbents, as well as new applicants, are encouraged to apply." Under this policy the Council has the option to not advertise and seek applicants for the upcoming vacancy should they wish to consider reappointing the current commissioner, Patty Cummings, whose current term ends on March 25th, 2024.

Analysis/Discussion:

Parks and Recreation Commissioner Patty Cummings addressed a letter dated January 9th, 2024, to the City Council requesting to be reappointed. Commissioner Cummings has served on the Parks and Recreation Commission for four years. In that time, Commissioner Cummings has provided unmatched insight into the City of Bishop community needs, is essential in the success of our City League Softball and has volunteered at Parks and Recreation Community Events.

Economic Impacts:

None

Budget Impacts:

There are no budget impacts. The City's Fiscal Year 2023-2024 Budget includes compensation of no more than $50.00 per month for up to five Parks and Recreation Commissioners pursuant to the City of Bishop Municipal Code.

Legal Review:

City Attorney Pucci has reviewed this item and finds that the recommended action complies with the law.

Recommended Action:

Council consideration to reappoint Patty Cummings to the Parks and Recreation Commission with a term ending on March 25th, 2028.
