FROM: Sarah Rosenberg, Associate Planner
      Erin George, Deputy Director of Community Development
      Anna Bentley, Director of Community Development

SUBJECT: Discuss the Historic Preservation Advisory Board training that will take place on May 11, 2024.

MEETING DATE: April 17, 2024

AGENDA ITEM TYPE: Citizen Advisory Board/Commission

RECOMMENDATION: NA

STRATEGIC PLAN: 1.1 Outreach: Continue to strengthen and innovate in how we deliver information to the community and our partners.

BACKGROUND: The Historic Preservation Advisory Board will partake in the Commission Assistance and Mentoring Program (CAMP) training from the National Alliance of Preservation Commission (NAPC). CAMP is led by qualified preservation professionals in support of NAPC’s mission to build strong local preservation programs and leaders through education, training, and advocacy. This training will take place on Saturday, May 11. The following topics will be discussed at the training:

- Why Preserve: Introduction to Historic Preservation
- Identifying and Designating Historic Resources: Discusses designation at both National and local level
- Preservation Planning: Tools to establish meaningful goals on preservation programs
- Diversity, Equity and Inclusion in Historic Preservation: Addresses how preservation efforts can prioritize inclusion to tell a comprehensive story and remain relevant
- Conservation Overlay Districts: Discusses regulatory components of conservation overlay districts
- Resources of the Recent Past: How to understand and manage historic resources from the 1950s-1980s.

During this item, staff will provide more details on the training and the board will have the opportunity to ask any questions.

UNRESOLVED ISSUES: NA

ALTERNATIVES: NA
FISCAL EFFECTS: Funds for CAMP training have been budgeted.
