EXPLANATION:

On July 26, 2023, City Council adopted Resolution 23-60: Emergency Operations Implementation and Emergency Pay Policy. The Florida Department of Emergency Management recommended changes to the policy relative to employees who are reassigned to perform different duties, work outside their departments and/or work at different locations as part of our Disaster Recovery Assessment associated with the City's participation in the F-ROC Program. The policy is also being amended to cover work performed when employees are pulled away from their regular duties to perform pre-disaster and disaster protective measures to allow the City to request reimbursement, to the extent under FEMA Public Assistance Grants, for said pre-disaster declaration work.
