AGENDA ITEM	Public Facilities District Appointment
EXHIBITS
STAFFED BY	Stern
ESTIMATED TIME	5 mins

SUMMARY STATEMENT

In general, as provided in RCW 36.100.030, the KPFD Board of Directors is authorized to acquire, construct, own, remodel, maintain, repair and operate sports, entertainment and convention facilities or regional centers and related parking facilities as defined in RCW 35.57.020.

KPFD Directors are appointed to four-year, renewable terms and serve without compensation. Here are some job duties:

- Govern and provide general oversight of the KPFD, as well as the public facilities projects developed and/or funded by KPFD;
- Hold public meetings on current and proposed public facilities projects;
- Play an integral part in developing ways to pay for the KPFD public facilities projects;
- Provide financial oversight of KPFD funding used for construction, maintenance and operation of public facilities projects;

Mayor Stern recommends re-appointing Mr. Daron Jagodzinske to a four-year term July 1, 2026 to June 30, 2030. The Kitsap County Board of County Commissioners will also need to re-appoint him at a future Commissioners meeting.
