Approve Budget Adjustment Transfer of Opioid Settlement Funds from the Behavioral Health funds to Health and Human Services Agency related to funding the Public Health Services Opioid Task Force/ Education Program for $85,000.00 for Fiscal Year 2024/2025. (4/5 vote required)
SBC FILE NUMBER: 810

AGENDA SECTION:

CONSENT AGENDA

BACKGROUND/SUMMARY:

San Benito County has received funds from opioid settlements including Janssen & Distributors (J&D) and McKinsey settlements. The monies received from these settlements will fund projects related to opioid abatement, remediation, treatment and recovery services. San Benito County's share of settlement funds are being held in Behavioral Health coffers. Pursuant to the settlements, allowable expenditures must include activities tied to the ending, reduction or lessening the effects of the opioid epidemic in communities and include prevention, intervention, harm reduction, treatment and recovery services.

San Benito County Public Health Services Opioid Program is a public health program that provides opioid abuse related education to members of the public for several years. This program's main objective is to head the San Benito County Opioid Task Force. The coalition meets every other month.
