AGENDA SECTION:

CONSENT AGENDA

BACKGROUND/SUMMARY:

The Monterey Bay Air Resources District and Breathe California clean air space program will be providing San Benito County Office of Emergency Services with two (2) air purifiers to be used in an evacuation center to provide clean air during a wildfire or smoke event. The purpose of these clean air centers is so that vulnerable populations can seek refuge during these events.

The Monterey Bay Air Resources District and Breathe California clean air space program will be using funds through the CA state grant AB 836, funded through the California Budget Act of 2020. There is no charge to the County or OES.

Once deployed, the air purifiers can be used for up to 5 years.
