AGENDA SECTION:

CONSENT AGENDA

BACKGROUND/SUMMARY:

The Community Action Board (CAB) is requesting the appointment of Ms. Ludmila Wist as the Board of Supervisor Representative for District #5. Her application was approved by the CAB during its meeting on November 13, 2025. We respectfully request that the Board of Supervisors approve her appointment, with an effective date of December 16, 2025, the day the Board is scheduled to take action. The CAB is a volunteer board made up of community members from different backgrounds, including people with low incomes, local government representatives, and private sector leaders. This mix is required by law and ensures that a wide range of voices are included in decisions that affect our community. The CAB's main role is to help guide programs and services that reduce poverty and improve the lives of local residents. This includes supporting efforts like homelessness and housing assistance, community outreach, and long-term planning. By joining the board, Ms. Wist will bring valuable experience and insight that will help the CAB continue its work in creating more opportunities and support for people in need.

FISCAL IMPACT:

There are no fiscal impacts regarding this item.
