Background: Under the direction of the ACAC and administration of Elizabeth Brincklow, a rotating art display has been curated for City Hall Commission Chambers and the public viewing. The first display of public art in City Hall Chambers began in March 2020 and continues to exhibit local professional artists. Art rotates on a semi-annual basis.

Richard Logan is the selected artist on display in the Chambers from June 2026 to October 2026. An art talk and reception with Richard Logan will be scheduled at City Hall.
