Background: Public Service Recognition Week (PSRW), which has been celebrated the first full week in May since 1985, is a time set aside to honor those who serve our nation as federal, state, county and local government employees. Throughout the nation and the world, public servants use this occasion to educate others about the work they do and why they have chosen public service careers, as well as the many ways government services make life better for all of us.
Staff recommends Commission approval of the attached Proclamation recognizing Public Service Recognition Week in Dunedin.
