Agenda Item

Employee Recognition - Division Chief Justin Riewestahl - (Jones) - Item 4.D

Item Explanation

The purpose of this agenda item is to recognize Division Chief Justin Riewestahl for having successfully completed the Fire and Rescue Management Certificate Program through the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

Staff Comments

Division Chief Justin Riewestahl is recognized for completing the Fire and Rescue Management Certificate Program through UNC-Charlotte. The Fire and Rescue Management Institute at UNCC was founded in 2006 and is designed for company officers, chief officers, and future fire service leaders. The cohort program is completed over a five-month period, and its curriculum addresses the evolving roles and challenges faced by today's fire officers. Modules during the program focus on team building, personnel management, supervision, strategic planning, communication skills, and public relations.
