BACKGROUND: Glynn County Recreation and Parks Department ("GCRPD") utilizes the services of qualified individuals to provide instruction in recreational programs such as tennis, swim lessons, babysitting course, and yoga. It is important to each program's success to have quality instructors who are professional, have demonstrated the ability to instruct the program, and have an understanding of GCRPD's policies, procedures, and expectations.

Program instructors are contracted vendors. They are not County employees nor do they receive any employee benefits. Per the terms of the instructor agreement, contracted vendors will be paid seventy percent (70%) of the registration fees paid by the program participants to the County for the classes they instruct. Revenue generated from participant fees exceed the cost to pay instructors.

GCRPD is seeking Board of Commissioners approval to enter into an Instructor Agreement with Hannah Bramon to offer yoga classes at Selden Park and possibly other County locations in FY25. The instructor agreement has been reviewed and approved by the County Attorney.
