No decisions or formal actions are scheduled at this time. At this stage, several key components of the budget are still in progress. Revenue estimates have not been updated since the previous workshop, and funding requests from outside agencies, departments, and component units are still being submitted. As a result, the County does not yet have a complete financial picture. The primary focus of this workshop will be a review of payroll impacts on the budget, along with addressing any questions from the Board. Additional discussions may occur as needed; however, this session is intended to provide an opportunity for early review and dialogue rather than decision-making. Further information and refined projections will be presented as the budget process continues and more complete data becomes available.
