SUBJECT: Consider adoption of the Water and Wastewater Master Plan Update.

BACKGROUND/DISCUSSION

The Utility Board adopted the previous Water Master Plan Update on November 16, 2017 and the previous Wastewater Master Plan Update on March 20, 2017. On December 14, 2023, the Utility Board approved a professional services contract with Freese & Nichols to update the Water and Wastewater Master Plan, combining the Water and Wastewater Master Plan into one document. The master plan update generally includes an update to the City's land use assumptions, a water and wastewater model update and calibration, a system hydraulic analysis, system risk-based assessment, an updated capital improvement plan (CIP) and a Water and Wastewater Master Plan Report.

Freese and Nichols will present the Water and Wastewater Master Plan Update at the July 24, 2025 Board meeting. With the Board's adoption, the master plan will be complete and ready to use as the official Water and Wastewater Master Plan for the City of Weatherford.
